

Fall fine art show opens at Straube Center

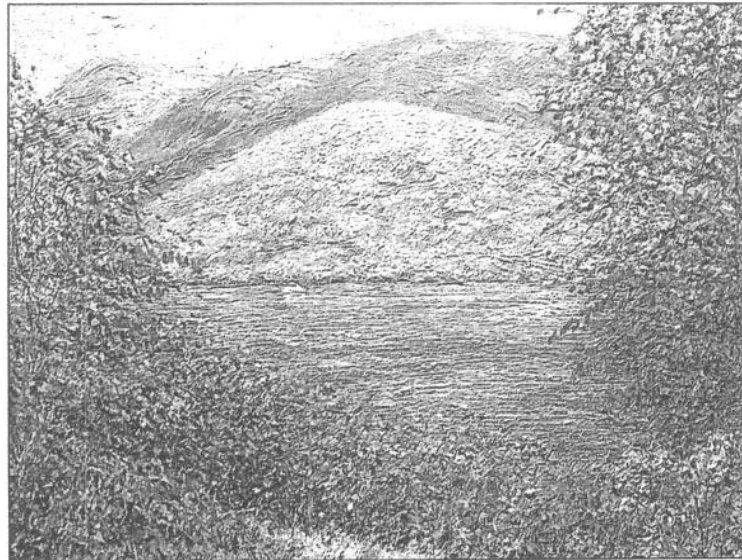

Straube Center's Fall Fine Art Show opens Nov. 7 at the newly refurbished office and retail complex located on Route 31 at W. Franklin Ave. in Pennington, N.J.

The fall show, which will be on display until Dec. 28, will feature six award winning artists including J. Stacy Rogers, Chris Carter, Joy Kreves, Richard Gerstner, Brad Browne and John Stinger. Stinger, who heads The Fine Arts Alliance, also curates all Straube art events including six shows for 2009 featuring sculpture, national and international painters.

An artists' reception will be held 4 to 8 p.m. Nov. 7 followed by a "Meet the Artist" session at 1 p.m. Nov. 8 in the Conference Room gallery. Artists Chris

"Lake George" by John Stinger

Carter and John Stinger will discuss their different approaches to painting the landscape.

The public is invited to attend all events free of charge. New collectors and art students are also invited to attend and participate in the educational discussions. No reservations are required.

Call 908-319-8957 or visit stingerfineart.com.